window—ay, and even try to prevent others from so doing?

360.

A SIGN OF RADICAL CHANGES. —When we dream of persons long forgotten or dead, it is a sign that we have suffered radical changes, and that the soil on which we live has been completely undermined. The dead rise again, and our antiquity becomes modernity.

3.61.

MEDICINE OF THE SOUL.—To lie still and think little is the cheapest medicine for all diseases of the soul, and, with the aid of good-will, becomes pleasanter every hour that it is used.

36*2.

INTELLECTUAL ORDER OF PRECEDENCE. —You rank far below others when you try to establish the exception and they the rule.

363.

THE FATALIST. — You must believe in fate— science can compel you thereto. All that develops in you out of that belief —cowardice, devotion or loftiness, and uprightness—bears witness to the soil in which the grain was sown, but not to the grain itself, for from that seed anything and everything can grow.
